Re: Report of Ex Parte Communication
MM Docket No. 93-114

Dear Ms. Searcy:

Pursuant to Section 1.1206(a)(2) of the Commission's Rules, this is to report that ex parte meetings were held on May 18 and 19, 1993, attended by one or more of the following representatives of the Community Broadcasters Association (CBA) and the Commission, concerning the above-referenced proceeding on the subject of low power television:

CBA

Jud Colley, President
Sherwin Grossman, Secy.
D. J. Everett, Treasurer
Byron St. Clair, President,
TV Technology Corp.
Peter Tannenwald, Counsel

FCC

Roy J. Stewart, Chief
Mass Media Bureau
Keith Larson, Chief
Low Power TV Branch
Robert E. Branson, Esq.
Office of Comsr. Barrett
John C. Hollar, Esq.
Office of Comsr. Duggan
Dr. Brian Fontes
Office of Chairman Quello

During these meetings, CBA representatives urged the Commission to authorize four-letter call signs for low power TV stations, to do so without any special suffix, and to allow low power TV stations to apply for four-letter call signs immediately after receiving a construction permit, so that the call sign may be publicized before the station goes on the air. CBA also urged that low power TV filing windows be opened on a regular basis, perhaps twice a year.

Very truly yours,

Peter Tannenwald
Counsel for the Community Broadcasters Association
